- e. being for the time being in control or in charge of any place where petroleum is being imported, transported, stored, produced, refined or blended, refuses or neglects to show to any officer authorised under Section 14 any petroleum in such place, or to give him such assistance as he may require for the inspection of such petroleum, or refuses to allow him to take samples of the petroleum, or
- f. being required under Section 27, to give information of an accident fails to give such information as so required by that section shall be punishable [with simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both].

(2) If any person, having been convicted of an offence punishable under sub-section (1), is again guilty of any offence punishable under that sub-section, he shall be punishable for every such subsequent offence [with simple imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees, or with both].

24. Confiscation of petroleum and receptacles.-

(1) In any case in which an offence under clause (a) or clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 23 has been committed, the convicting Magistrate may direct that -

- a. the petroleum in respect of which the offence has been committed, or
- b. where the offender is convicted of importing, transporting or storing petroleum exceeding the quantity he is permitted to import, transport or store, as the case may be, the whole of the petroleum in respect of which the offence was committed, shall, together with receptacles in which it is contained, be confiscated.

(2) This power may also be exercised by the High Court in the exercise of its appellate or revisional powers.

25. Jurisdiction

Offences punishable under this Act shall be triable, in the Presidency-towns, by a Presidency Magistrate, and elsewhere by a Magistrate of the first class, or by a Magistrate of the second class who has been specially empowered by the [Central Government] in this behalf.

26. Power to entry and search -

1. The [Central Government] may, by notification in the Official Gazette, authorise any officer by name or by virtue of office to enter and search any place where he has reason to believe that any petroleum is being imported, transported, stored, produced, refined or blended otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made there under, and to seize, detain or remove any or all of the petroleum in respect of which in his opinion an offence under this Act has been committed.
2. The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (5 of 1898) relating to searches shall, so far as they are applicable, apply to searches by officers authorised under this section.
3. The Central Government may make rules regulating the procedure of authorised officers in the exercise of their powers under the section subject, however, to the provisions of sub-section (2)

27. Notice of accidents with petroleum-

Whenever there occurs in or about, or in connection with, any place in which petroleum is refined, blended or kept, or any carriage or vessel either conveying petroleum or on or from which petroleum is being loaded or unloaded, any accident by explosion or by fire as a result of the ignition of petroleum or petroleum vapour attended with loss of human life or serious injury to person or property, or of a description usually attended with such loss or injury, the occupier of the place or the person for the time being in charge of the petroleum or the person in charge of the carriage or the master of the vessel, as the case may be, shall, within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, give notice thereof and of the attendant loss of human life, or injury to person or property, if any, to the nearest Magistrate or to the officer in charge of the nearest police station and to the Chief Inspector of Explosives in India.

28. Inquiries into serious accidents with petroleum

1. The inquiries mentioned in Section 176 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, (4 of 1871), shall [unless Section 8 of the Coroners Act, 1871, (4 of 1871), is applicable to the circumstances] be held in all cases where any person has been killed by an accident which the Magistrate has reason to believe was the result of the ignition of petroleum or petroleum vapour.

2. Any Magistrate empowered to hold inquest may also hold an inquiry under the said section into the cause of any accident which he has reason to believe was the result of the ignition of petroleum or petroleum vapour, if such accident was attended by serious injury to person or property, notwithstanding that no person was killed thereby.
3. For the purpose of [sub-section (2)] a Commissioner of Police [* * ] [ * *] shall be deemed to be a Magistrate empowered to hold an inquest.
4. The result of all inquiries held in pursuance of section [and of any inquiry held by coroner in a case to which sub-section (1) refers] shall be submitted as soon as may be to the [Central Government,[the Chief Inspector of Explosives in India] and the State Government].

CHAPTER IV SUPPLEMENTAL

29. Provisions relating to rules --

(1) In making any rules under this Act, the [Central Government] may -

- a. provide for any matter ancillary to such rules for which in [its] opinion provision is necessary to protect the public from danger arising from the import, transport, storage, production, refining or blending of petroleum, and
- b. make special provision for the special circumstances of any State or place.

(2) Every power to make rules conferred by this Act is subject to the condition of previous publication.

(3) All rules made under this Act shall be published in the Official Gazette [* * *].

(4) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session or the successive sessions aforesaid, both House agree in making any modification in the rule, or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

30. Power to limit powers of local authorities over petroleum

When any enactment confers power upon any local authority in respect of the transport or storage of petroleum, the Central Government, may by notification in the Official Gazette; -

- a. limit the operation of such enactment, or
- b. restrict the exercise of such powers, in any manner [it] deems fit.
